

The Fine Arts Show is held annually during Balloon Fiesta. The show is juried by artists and features original in concept work by New Mexico artists. The show is held in the beautiful venue of the Old San Ysidro Church. The adobe walls and natural New Mexico autumn light showcase the works. Oils, acrylics, watercolor, mixed, sculpture, ink, photography, and fabric are typical mediums included in this show. All works are available for sale. Contact Bev 505-301-0042 for further information. There is no admission charge and the public is welcome. Net proceeds of the show support the preservation and maintenance of the Old Church and support the programs of the Historical Society. There is a map and directions link from the Home page.
